N.B.—When any sum has been secured both by a lien on the wool and by a mortgage on the sheep, the amount is included under the head of mortgages only.

 The Bills of Sale Act of 1885 came in force December 11th, 1885, which included Mortgages of Stock and Preferable Liens, the latter only being revived by Bills of Sale Act of 1886, on November 17th, 1886.

N.B.—The reason of so few discharges of bills of sale, &c., being registered is mainly owing to the difficulty of proving the certificate of satisfaction as required by the Act (No. 8 of 5th Vic.), viz., the acknowledgment by the mortgagee of his signature to the certificate of satisfaction or proof of execution by said mortgagee by one of two witnesses upon affidavit before the Registrar-General or his deputy. For this reason the greater portion are allowed to lapse.

* The great increase in the number is partly owing to the fact that Hire Agreements, Mortgages of Stock and Liens and Settlements are included.

* Loan raised by Colonisation Commissioners. † Aid from Imperial Government. ‡ Aid to Revenue by issue of Bonds and Treasury Bills.
§ Immigration ceased in these years.

NOTE.—Prior to 1851, all remittances to the Land and Emigration Commissioners were carried to account by the Colonial Treasurer as sums expended on immigration, and the receipts in England by the Land and Emigration Commissioners were never included in the accounts of the Colony—an adjustment of accounts was, however, made in the year 1853.

Reading-room (newspapers and periodicals) in the Institute Building.

The Reading-room contains all the South Australian newspapers, several of the leading newspapers from each of the other Australian colonies, and various English, Irish, and Scotch newspapers; also most of the best English periodicals.

The attendance cannot be given, as there are no means of registering it, but there is little doubt that it is greater than that in any other department of the institution.

Note.—The different departments are open to the public during the following hours, viz.:—

Public Library—Week days, 10 a.m. to 9 p.m.; Sundays, 2 p.m. to 6 p.m.

Museum (Summer)—Week days, 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.; Sundays, 2 p.m. to 6 p.m.
(Winter)—Week days, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.; Sundays, 2 p.m. to 5 p.m.

Art Gallery (Summer)—Week days, 10 a.m. to 5 p m.; Sundays, 2 p.m. to 5 p.m.
(Winter)—Week days, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.; Sundays, 2 p.m. to 4 p.m.

[1] The areas here given, except in the case of New Zealand, are the results of planimetrical calculations made in the office of the Surveyor-General, Melbourne. Except in the case of Western Australia, the area of which differs from the official estimate by 84,000 square miles, these results agree closely with the figures furnished officially by the various colonies. The latest official statement of the area of New Zealand, including all islands, is 104,471 square miles. See also Victorian Year-Book, 1889-90, Vol. I., page 6.

[2] In making up the estimates of population in Victoria and New South Wales, allowance has been made for unrecorded emigration since the date of the last census (3rd April, 1881). If this had not been done, the population of Victoria would have been set down as 1,165,257, and that of New South Wales as 1,170,017. The allowance for 1889 was 5,972 in the case of Victoria and 6,312 in that of New South Wales. South Australia and Queensland also made some allowance in 1889 for overland migration. Censuses were taken in New Zealand and Queensland in the early part of 1886, and, therefore, the populations of those colonies should be nearer the truth than those of the other colonies, which have taken no census since 1881. On the 30th June, 1890, the estimated population of Victoria was 1,131,247, viz., 599,545 males and 531,702 females; that of New South Wales was 1,144,083; South Australia, 319,985; New Zealand, 623,136.

[3] Maoris are not included. On the 28th March, 1886, these numbered 41,969, viz., 22,840 males and 19,129 females.

NOTE.—Except in the case of Queensland—for which colony the number of persons returned as arriving and departing by railway (equal to about four-fifths of the whole number) has been included—the Immigration and Emigration in this table is by sea only. See second footnote to Table I. ante.

[1] The figures in these columns generally understate the truth. Many persons leave the colonies by sea without their departure being noted. It is stated, however, that in New Zealand a complete account is now kept.

[2] In consequence of the Emigration returns being defective, as stated in the last footnote, many of the figures in these columns are too high, except where the minus sign (−) appears indicating that the emigrants exceeded the immigrants by the number against which it is placed, when the figures are too low.

[3] Estimated.

[4] According to Imperial returns, the number of persons who left the United Kingdom for the Australasian colonies in 1889 was 28,834, and the number who returned to the United Kingdom from these colonies was 10,637. The excess in favour of departures was thus 18,197, or little more than one-third of the excess of immigrants over emigrants shown in the table.

NOTE.—The figures of revenue and expenditure for Victoria are for the twelve months ended 30th June, but these for the other colonies are for the calendar year. Refunds of revenue, drawbacks, and such similar entries, are rigidly excluded from the accounts of revenue and expenditure of Victoria and New Zealand, but are included in those of New South Wales and Queensland, also in those of some of the other colonies. See also Note 5.

[1] The amounts in this column are made up of Excise duties, including licences imposed for revenue purposes; duties on bank notes; stamps, other than those for fees of office; legacy, succession, and probate duties; property and income taxes; and any other impost, payable to the General Government, levied distinctly as a tax; but excluding fees, and charges for special services rendered.

[2] The figures for Victoria during the year ended 30th June, 1890, but unaudited, were as follow:—Revenue from Customs, £2,658,011; other taxes, £971,689 (partly estimated); from Crown lands, £579,776; from Railways, £3,134,066; from Post and Telegraphs, £516,000 (estimated); from other sources, £659,618—Total revenue, £8,519,160. The estimated mean population of the same period was 1,118,000; therefore the revenue per head was £7 12s. 5d.; and the taxation per head was about £3 4s. 11d.

[3] The proportion of the revenue of Victoria and New Zealand derived from "Other Taxes" and "Post and Telegraphs" has been roughly estimated, there being no means of obtaining the exact figures.

[4] Exclusive of tramways. See footnote (1) to Table X. post. Revenue collected for Victoria for traffic beyond Albury (£20,262) is also excluded.

[5] Including revenue returned to the extent of at least £368,983—viz., £21,873, being repayments to credit of votes; £38,466, for drawbacks and refunds of duty; £20,262, railway revenue collected for the Victorian Government; £155,454, refunds to pastoral lessees; and about £132,928, being other revenue returned, &c.

[6] Excluding £60,512 recouped from Loans.

Inclusive of revenue from gold-fields, £19,567.

In calculating the amounts for Victoria the mean population during the year 1888-9 (1,085,630) has been taken. For the other colonies, the figures of mean population shown in the last column of Table I. have been used.

NOTE.—For periods to which the figures relate in each colony, see Note to last table. For remarks in reference to the practice of swelling the returns of some of the colonies by including refunds of revenue, &c., on both sides of the account, see Note to last table.

[1] According to a statement made up in the Treasury, in July, 1890, the approximate expenditure of Victoria for the year 1889–90 was as follows:—Railways, £2,537,844; Post and Telegraphs, £677,558; Interest, &c., on Public Debt, £1,548,995; Other Services, £4,985,807. Total Expenditure, £9,750,204. The accounts have since been closed, and the result (unaudited) shows the actual expenditure to have been only £9,645,860, or £8 12s. 7d. per head of population.

[2] See footnote (5) to last table.

[3] Interest only.

[4] Exclusive of charges for the sinking fund, (viz., £275,200) formerly charged to revenue, but now met by debentures raised for the purpose.

[5] In calculating the amounts for Victoria, the mean population during the year 1888-9 (1,085,630) has been taken. For the other colonies the figures of mean population shown in the last column of Table I. have been used.

NOTE.—The amounts set down for New South Wales and South Australia are exclusive of Treasury Bills for £1,907,100 and £250,000 respectively. On the 30th June, 1890, the Public Debt of Victoria was £41,377,693. The estimated population at that date was 1,131,247, and the revenue of the financial year ended with that date was £8,519,160. The debt was thus equal to £36 11s. 6d. per head, or to 4·86 years' revenue. Moreover, since the end of 1889 Queensland has floated in London a fresh loan of £2,264,734.

[1] Included with other public works.

[2] Including £1,139,999, loans to local bodies, chiefly for Waterworks.

[3] Including other buildings.

[4] The amount for Roads and Bridges is included with that for Harbours, &c.

[5] The figures set down as showing the objects for which the Public Debt of New Zealand was contracted represent the net expenditure out of the "Public Works Fund" since 1870—the date of the first Immigration and Public Works Loan—which is the only existing record of the loan expenditure; it is however stated that, besides loan moneys, receipts in aid from Stamp duties, &c., contributed somewhat towards the total sum so expended. The balance required to make up the total debt at the end of 1889 has been entered as "Unapportioned."

[6] In New Zealand, a portion of the expenditure on "Defences" is included under the head of "Harbours," &c., and a portion is under the head of "Unapportioned."

[7] In New South Wales, the amount under this head was expended on public works on behalf of Queensland when it formed part of New South Wales: in South Australia on general public works for the Northern Territory; in New Zealand on land purchases (presumably from the Maoris), £1,178,554, and rates on native lands, £49,764, &c. From the amount returned for Tasmania, debentures redeemed, amounting to £96,500, have been deducted, since the purposes were not specified for which the original loans thereby paid off were raised.

[8] Consisting chiefly of unexpended balances; but of the amount for New South Wales £2,723,430 was for "Repayment of loans."

[9] As a set-off against the public debt, New Zealand possessed an accrued sinking fund amounting, on the 31st December, to £1,320,359; the net liability of that colony was, therefore, £37,162,891, or £59 18s. 3d. per head of population, equal to 9 times the revenue. The sinking funds possessed by the other colonies are comparatively small, consisting of the following amounts:—Victoria, £54,112; Western Australia, £71,536; Tasmania, £103,181.

[10] In calculating these results, the populations on the 31st December shown in the fifth column of Table I. have been used.

[11] In calculating these results, the figures of public revenue given in Table IV. have been used.

[12] Treasury bills.

[13] Consisting of amounts spent out of the old provincial loans of New Zealand, prior to the abolition of provinces in 1876, loans not accounted for, and the unspent balances of loan moneys; also £1,021,472 for charges and expenses of raising loans. No particulars of the purposes to which the former were applied are available.

NOTE.—The figures are for the year ended 30th June, 1889, for Victoria and New South Wales; for that ended 31st March, 1890, for New Zealand; and for that ended 31st December for the other colonies. On the 30th June, 1890, the extent of lines opened in Victoria had increased to 2,470 miles, and the cost of construction to £31,800,515, whilst the gross receipts for 1889-90 amounted to £3,131,866, the working expenses to £2,132,158, and the net receipts to £999,708, being equivalent to 3·28 per cent. of the mean capital cost. In New South Wales, during the same year, the extent opened increased to 2,182, and the capital cost to £30,555,123, whilst the gross receipts amounted to £2,633,086, and the working expenses to £1,665,835; the net receipts being thus £967,251, or equivalent to 3·20 per cent. on the mean capital cost.

[1] These columns do not include tramways, of which there were in Victoria, at the end of 1889, 35¼ miles (chiefly cable) constructed by the Melbourne municipalities, but let to a private company; in New South Wales, in 1889-90, 39½ miles (steam), constructed by Government at a capital cost of £933,614, the gross receipts from which amounted in 1889-90 to £268,962, and the working expenses to £224,073; in Queensland, 8½ miles; and in Western Australia, constructed by timber companies, 100 miles. The cost of construction of the cable tramways of Victoria (including expenditure on lines in progress), at the end of 1889, was £1,563,810, and the receipts during the year amounted to £519,617. In New South Wales one line, 5 miles long, formerly a tramway, is now considered to be a railway. In New Zealand, the cost of the private lines was £740,986; whilst the earnings from traffic during the year were £67,167, and the working expenses £23,339.

[2] The calculations in this column are based on the mean of the amounts of capital cost at the beginning and end of the year.

[3] Including railways authorized.

[4] This is the Great Southern Railway, constructed on the land-grant system.

[5] The minus (−) sign indicates a net loss, or excess of working expenses over receipts.

[6] Included with the Government lines in Tasmania are 122 miles guaranteed by the State, constructed at a cost of £1,188,316. The 48 miles of unguaranteed private lines in that colony cost £187,198. The receipts of the latter during the year amounted to £16,935, and the working expenses to £12,753.

[1] Subject to certain regulations and restrictions, newspapers posted in New South Wales, Queensland, and Tasmania, travel free to any of the Australasian Colonies, and in Western Australia they travel free to places within the colony itself. In the other colonies a small postage fee is charged on newspapers.

[2] This probably includes commission on money orders in all the colonies.

[3] Including amounts on account of Telegraphs and Telephones. The revenue is made up of Postal revenue (roughly estimated), £370,000; Telegraphic revenue (as shown in Table XII.), £159,093; but does not include any allowance for official correspondence and telegrams transmitted without charge, at an estimated cost of about £50,000. The expenditure includes cost of printing books, forms, and stamps by the Government Printer; but is exclusive of expenditure on buildings and on construction and maintenance of telegraph lines.

[4] Including expenditure on telegraphs.

[1] The purchase-money for selected land varies in the different colonies from 10s. to 30s. per acre, payable by annual instalments (often without interest) extending over a period of 10 or 20 years. For particulars of the terms and conditions under which such land is acquired, see Victorian Year-Book 1888–9, Vol. II., under the head of "Production."

[2] Land alienated in fee-simple only. See also footnote (9) infra.

[3] This low average is explained by the circumstance that a large portion of the purchase money was previously paid as rent. The price of rural land is 10s. per acre.

[4] Approximate only.

[5] Chiefly Great Southern Railway grant.

[6] Of this area 29,088 acres were granted to natives, or Europeans who purchased from them, under Native Land Acts.

[7] Including only that of which the purchase has been completed.

[8] Exclusive of the extent estimated to have been forfeited for non-fulfilment of conditions, &c.

[9] Including land held under leases with right of purchase on certain conditions, viz., 1,195,169 acres in Queensland, and 1,312,971 acres in South Australia.

[10] These figures relate partly to lands in respect to which Crown Grants have been issued either to the original Maori possessors, or to Europeans or Maoris who have purchased from them, under certain Native Land Acts.

[11] Of this extent, about 14,000,000 acres belong to the Maoris, or to Europeans who have purchased from them; and 544,914 acres were held under "Perpetual Lease."

NOTE.—The State system of education is compulsory and undenominational (or secular) in all the colonies, and Western Australia is now the only colony which grants assistance to denominational schools. Public instruction is free in Victoria, Queensland, and New Zealand; but fees are charged in the other colonies, although they are partially or entirely remitted in cases where the parents are unable to pay them. The prescribed school age differs in the various colonies—In Victoria it was from 6 to 15 years until November, 1889, when it was altered to from 6 to 13 years; in New South Wales and Western Australia, it is from 6 to 14; in Queensland, from 6 to 12; in South Australia, Tasmania, and New Zealand, from 7 to 13. For a complete account of the educational systems of the various colonies, see Appendix to Victorian Year-Book 1888-9, Vol. II.

* Where asterisks occur, the figures have not been furnished or are incomplete.

[1] These figures have been estimated in the office of the Government Statist, Melbourne.

[2] Including 16 assisted schools.

[3] This represents the cost of State (Primary) Education, including expenditure on Head Office, staff, and inspection, but exclusive only of expenditure on buildings (either for repairs or erection) and rent. In the case of New Zealand, however, rent is included, as the amount could not be ascertained.

[4] Portion of the amounts in this column are derived from Education Reserves, &c., viz., £10,418 in South Australia, and £31,646 in New Zealand.

[5] For extra subjects.—In the figures for New Zealand, amounts received by Boards from local sources, and sums raised locally by School Committees are also included.

[6] Exclusive of amounts received by assisted schools, which was not returned.

[7] In Government schools only. The average amount also paid by the State to assisted schools was £1 8s. 4½d.

[1] Including beans and pease, except in the case of New South Wales.

[2] In addition to crops sown for the purpose of being cut green for cattle, this column contains the following areas laid down in permanent artificial grass in the colonies named:—

In Queensland, where it is not so included, the area returned is 16,120 acres. For extent of such land in New Zealand, see Note 6.

[6] In the figures for New Zealand, the land under permanent artificial grass, amounting to 6,479,160 acres—of which about one-half had been, and the other half had not been, previously ploughed—is not entered as green forage, nor is it included in the total area under tillage, as in the majority of the other colonies. Were the whole so placed, it would bring the land under tillage up to 8,039,765 acres, or to 12·96 acres per head of the population. The green forage entered above consists of 121,301 acres of green oats, and 352,903 acres of turnips.

The wool referred to is, of course, not homogeneous in quality, some being greasy and some washed and scoured. The Government Statistician of New South Wales has estimated that the equivalent weight in greasy wool of the whole clip for that colony was 299,012,200 lbs.

NOTE.—The figures for Victoria, New South Wales, and Queensland express the quantity and value of all the gold known to have been raised in those colonies since the period of its first discovery in Australia in 1851; those for South Australia are estimated chiefly from the returns of the Melbourne and Sydney Mints, and partly from the export returns; those for New Zealand express the total exports of gold from the earliest period; and those for Tasmania express the quantity known to have been raised since 1866, there being no record of the gold raised prior to that period. There are no reliable returns of the gold raised in Western Australia, although a considerable quantity has been obtained on the Kimberley gold-fields of that colony; in 1888 it was estimated that 50,000 oz. were raised, yet only 3,493 oz. were declared for export. No similar estimate was made for 1889, and therefore only the quantity declared for export could be entered.

[1] The purity, and consequently the value, of gold varies considerably in different localities. In Victoria the average value is set down as £4 per oz., and in Queensland as £3 10s. per oz. Standard gold (i.e. 22 carats fine) is worth £3 17s. 10½d., and pure gold £4 4s. 11½d. per oz.
[2] Including Northern Territory.
[3] Roughly estimated.
[4] Quantity declared for export only.
